Answering the President's Defense Plea

Clerks' President Is Lisbon Speaker LISBON, May 24.-Legislation of nterest to township clerks and trustees was discussed by J. R. Thomas of Hayesville, president of the S ate Clerks and Trustees association, at a meeting of the Columbiana county organization Thursday night in the courthouse.

He announced that the state convention would be held in Cleveland June 13-15,

Two other speakers were William Helman and Randall McNab of the state department of public welfare, who discussed the operation of the relief program and sugges ed that Columbiana county clerks and trustees send any problems on relief which they might have to County Relief Director John W.

The pair said they would return in two weeks to answer the queries. Rep. John Stephenson explained a bill which was expected to come before the state legislature in the to level the ground after they have

Class A and Church Leagues Set To Open 1940 Season

It's up to the weatherman now! The Centennial park diamonds are about ready, a schedule has been arranged and 20 teams await the cry "play ball".

All that's needed is fair weather to get the city's two softball leagues off to a belated start for the 1940

J. M. Kelley, director of the leagues, announced today that, providing the weather is favorable, play in Class A and Church leagues definitely start Monday evening. Work on improvements on the park diamonds is nearly completed, Kelley said, explaining that the STOI fields need only to be leveled and nati. 6 rolled before play gets under way. Plain prevented finishing the job 6-0. today, but work is expected to be completed before Monday evening.

Opens 14th Season The 12-team Class A league, largest in the history of organized softball in Salem, will open its 14th, season with Mullins Manufacturers, defending champion, meeting Lee-tonia Merchants at 5:30 p. m. Unbeaten Record Gives Saxon Lassies Championship Of T.S. J. A. Cage League

The Salem girls, who will be honored at a banquet and dance at the Saxon Country club Saturday night, won 10 straight games in league competition and posted four wins in six non-league games. Their perfect record in league play gave the Salem club its second T. S. J. A. girls championship.

Three members of the present team, Helen Pauline, Tillie Linder and Jo Linder, played on the Salem team that won the league championship in the 1936-37 season. Jo Linder led the team in scoring for the 1939-49 season, ringing up 63 points. The six members of the team scored 171 points between them.

Hold Annual Field Events At Lake Placentia; Results Liste d

INSIDE—WESTERN RURAL Results of the Western Rural school district's fifth annual field meet, held Wednesday at Lake Placentia, were announced today by Wendell Berger.

Berger was chairman of the field meet committee which in-cluded Lorin Ruff, Elizabeth Meinzen, Helen C. Kloss and Richard

A number of events were omitted because many of the children of the school district could not attend. The meet was originally scheduled for May 16, but was postponed because of rain.

Teams from Knox school won the boys and girls softball tournaments, feature of the field meet.

Knox Teams Win

The Knox boys, under Coach Slates, defeated Butler, 10-3, in the finals while the Knox girls, coached by Bella Neimark, won over Hanover girls, 25-18, in the champion-

Preliminary games saw Knox girls defeat West Township lassies, 25-17; Hanover girls win over Butler girls, 42-32; Butler boys defeated Hanover boys, 9-8; and Knox boys upset West Township boys, 20-14.

The girls teams were in charge of Helen C. Kloos (Butler), Ruth W.lson (Hanover), Bella Neimark (Knox) and Charlotte Frazier (West). The boys teams were supervised by Atlee Freshley (Butler), Richard Russell (Hanover), Slates

(Knox) and Wilbur Hirst (West). Players who competed in the final games were: ,

Nazis "Repair" Blasted Spans With Pontoons

When the German army moved into Belgium, it encountered scores of bridges blown up by the retreating defenders. The Nazi legions, explains the German censor-approved caption, advanced past these obstacles by using rubber pontoons to fill in the wrecked section of the spans. Photo was flashed by radio from Berlin

The company accused the union of "slowdown" tactics in preparation for projected negotiations for a new contract. The union countered with charges of lockout. The dispute started at the Dodge main plant and spread to three other Dodge units. Before it three other Dodge units. Before it ended 54 days later with agree-ment on a new contract, workers in the remaining six plants were idle through lack of materials.

Ruling Affects 23,000

The unemployment compensation commission denied benefits to all Chrysler workers on grounds that were involved in the dispute Appeals were taken and Rubinoff ruled that 23,000 workers in plants where the dispute oid not center were entitled to benefit payments totaling nearly $2,000,000.
